CR42 LANCASTER

Lancaster, Pennsylvania is the oldest inland city in the U.S. and originally settled in 1718. It is well known for its architectural heritage featuring clean lines and simple designs. Just like a great architectural masterpiece, the Crosley Lancaster Entertainment Center features clean and sophisticated lines that are nicely detailed by open face grillwork and an authentic airplane-style dial. Lift the hinged lid to reveal a 3 speed record player that plays your 33 1/3, 45 and 78 RPM records. After listening to your old vinyl, sit back and relax to the AM/FM radio or the more modern CD player. The Lancaster's classic design and functionality make it a simple solution for any music lover.
