

A vertical chain consisting of two links. The top link is positioned above the bottom link. A horizontal dimension line is drawn across the middle of the chain, passing through the center of the top link. A vertical dimension line is drawn to the right of the chain, extending from the top of the top link to the top of the bottom link. The text '0.79"' is placed to the left of the horizontal dimension line, and '1.38"' is placed to the right of the vertical dimension line.
