

Lowell Table Lamp

Brighten your room with the trendsetting Lowell table lamp. Perfect for dorms, office desks, and side tables, this lamp offers a industrial vibe to any setting. The c-shaped frame is weighed down by a 8.5 in. base. The entire frame is covered in a matte black finish that coordinates well with other decor. The bulb will be installed in a downward position, and is surrounded by a round, glass shade. This lamp will double as a functional accent piece on its own, adding the perfect amount of color and light to your room.
