

KNOW YOUR BASS

THE BASS

DESCRIPTION

The bass is a member of the family Siluridae. It is a long, slender fish with a pointed snout and a dorsal fin on its back. It is found in freshwater and saltwater environments.

HABITAT

The bass is found in a variety of habitats, including rivers, streams, and lakes. It is also found in coastal waters and estuaries.

DIET

The bass is a carnivorous fish that feeds on a variety of prey, including insects, small fish, and crustaceans. It is also known to eat plants and algae.

THE BASS

DESCRIPTION

The bass is a member of the family Siluridae. It is a long, slender fish with a pointed snout and a dorsal fin on its back. It is found in freshwater and saltwater environments.

HABITAT

The bass is found in a variety of habitats, including rivers, streams, and lakes. It is also found in coastal waters and estuaries.

DIET

The bass is a carnivorous fish that feeds on a variety of prey, including insects, small fish, and crustaceans. It is also known to eat plants and algae.