

Certificate of Provenance

Artist: Fix-Masseau, Pierre

Title: Exactitude (1982)

Medium: Lithograph

Edition Size: 1000

Year Published: 1982

Paper size: 40 x 25 in.

Image Size: 38.5 x 24 in.

This is a high-quality lithographic reproduction of Exactitude by renowned French poster artist Pierre Fix-Masseau, copyrighted in 1982 by Studio Editions. Printed in France by Bedos, a respected fine art printer, this piece is rendered on heavy, linen-textured paper, giving it the look and feel of an original vintage travel or advertising poster.

Exactitude is celebrated for its sleek Art Deco styling and powerful imagery—symbolizing the precision and speed of early 20th-century travel. This reproduction faithfully captures the bold lines, rich tones, and dynamic composition that define Fix-Masseau's signature style, making it ideal for collectors and lovers of vintage French graphic design.

Perfect for framing and display, this piece adds a timeless sense of motion and elegance to any wall.

About Pierre Fix-Masseau:

Pierre Fix-Masseau (1905-1994) was a leading poster designer in the Art Deco period whose work reveals a fascination with the high speed and new technology which typified the preoccupations of the age. Transport was one of the most popular themes in Art Deco posters and Fix-Masseau's work is dominated by ships, cars and trains