

Four ceramic shades hang from two Australian brigalow wood boomerangs and create a mobile of lights, textures and shapes in this Juan Miro inspired chandelier, originally designed for our child.

The chandelier's ceramic shades include two black glazed clay shades, one white clay shade and one translucent porcelain shade.

The perforations create a camera obscura lighting effect in which the small round holes project V shaped light textures.

Lit image

Day light image

Lamp Base: G6 or G8

Wattage: Up to 200W xenon or 48W LED

Supplied bulb: 4x35W dimmable xenon bulbs that are twice more efficient in their energy use than a regular incandescent (equivalent to a 60W-75W incandescent), have a longer life span of 5,000 hours and a warm color light quality.

Alternative bulb: 4 x 6W dimmable LED light bulbs that are ten times more efficient in their energy use than a regular incandescent, have a longer life span of 50,000 hours and a warm, halogen like light color (3000K) - Dimmable with an LED dimmer such as Lutron Diva

Warranty: 1 year

Country of Manufacture: USA

Weight: 6 lb.

Listing: All electrical parts are UL listed, UL listing is available upon demand.

Plate and Shade Material: Hand made white and black ceramics. Minor variations may occur

Finish: Natural matte, black ceramics, translucent porcelain, natural wood.

Perforation Pattern: dot pattern.

Cord Cover Finish: Braided white

* Cord Length: Adjustable up to 48" - longer cords are available upon request