

Between Two Trees

These measurements serve as a reference for installing your hammock between two trees with a distance of 15 ft apart. If your trees have a shorter or longer distance between them, you can adjust the length of the strap or rope. Just make sure that the bottom of your hammock's body is installed 2 ft 6 in above the ground.